

Life - Start to Finish

We Begin Life
Alone

In a Total State of Discovery.

We End Life
Alone

Bathed In
What We Have Discovered.

Our Everyday

Highlights Our
Concrete World

And Proposes
A Dust to Dust

Final Scenario.

But.....

If We Probe

Beyond the Limits

Of Our Everyday,

We May Discover

Our Expanded Selves

As Integral Components

In an Infinite Universe.

Within This Dilemma,

We Can

Live Our Lives

And Depart,

Understanding

From Start

To Finish

We Are Always

Everything

And Nothing

In Each

Respectful

Moment.
