

Finding Nothingness

I Am Somebody!
Educated,
Intelligent,
Creative,
Successful.

Moreover!
Energetically and Materially Everything in Reality Is Unified.
All Things Are Totally Connected as One.
I Am an Integral Part of This Whole.

Whoops!
The Energetic and Material Universe Is So Enormous
Earth and the Human Species Are Utterly Insignificant.
As an Individual Human, I Am Meaningless.

Whoops Squared!
The Presence of Extraterrestrial Life Is Confirmed.
Some of This Life Is So Far Advanced in Intelligence and Awareness
My Intellectual Offerings Are Probably Valueless by Comparison.

Whoops to the 10th!
Even in Our Tiny Planetary Domain of Earth
We Humans Can't Curtail Our Aggressive Behavior,
Cooperate and Stop Abusing Our Planet's Ecology.

Whoops Finality!
In Spite of Our Scientific and Technological Accomplishments,
We Humans in Modern Complex Society Are So Disappointing
I Must Belong to a Lesser Order Species with a Minimal Future.

Whoops Irony!
Pursue Understanding the Nature of Reality Far Enough
And I Discover
The Essential Nothingness of Both Humanity
And
My Self.
