

End Zone

Death is Life's Black Hole.

We Vanish
As If Into Nothingness
Leaving Only a Shell.

Is That It?

Does This Black Hole
Become a White Hole?

To What?
What Survives?
Self, Soul, Atoms, Energy?

To Where?
Heaven?
Ancestor Observation Station?
Reincarnation Destination?
Another Universe?
Recycle Center?

We All Take This Final Ride
Into the Unknown.

Why Are We Aware
Of Our Perplexing Ignorance?

Death Remains
Our Ultimate Mystery.
