Teams

Composed of Equal Numbers
Of Male and Female Participants
Ranging in Age from 18 to 70
From Different Nations, Races, Ethnicities, Religions
Must Cooperate
To Successfully Solve a Series
Of Challenging Tasks
In a Limited Time Frame
Utilizing the Full Range of Human Capabilities
To Achieve
A Variety of Specific Goals
That Address Important
Material, Social, and/or Ecological Concerns.

The Time Has Come
For Us to Stop
Celebrating Human Success
Solely in Terms of the Hyper Physical Capabilities
Of Young Adults
And Instead
Compete
While Cooperating
Within Diversity
In Behalf
Of Achieving
Social and Ecological Goals
That Support
The Common Good.
