

The Control Illusion

Human Perception
Is So Extraordinarily Limited
We Think We Are Separate Entities
And Endowed With Free Will.

So,
Most Humans,
Engage Life As a Quest
For Maximal Control.

But, We Now Know
Immaterial Energy Connects and Unifies Everything
Into One Universal Phenomenon
In Which
Everything Is Constantly Changing.

Because Our Reality
Is Open [Expanding] And Enormous,
Humans Can Collectively Participate
At the Global Level
To Significantly Influence
The Local [Earthly] Direction of Change.

But,
Whether Large – Supernova, or Small – Heart Beat,
Every Change At Every Scale
Ramifies Throughout the Cosmic Web.

Nothing Is Separate or Independent.

Life Is the Quality of the Local Input We Offer
Individually and Collectively
To the Flow of Universal Change.

Control Is Not an Option!
